

REMARKS

Claims 23-28 have been allowed by the Examiner. Claims 5-6, 22, 30 and 32 have been objected to by the Examiner as containing allowable subject matter but depending from a rejected claim and are allowable if rewritten in independent form.

Interview Summary

As a result of a misnumbering of the as-filed claims, the present office action sets forth Claims 22-28 as allowed and Claims 5-6, 30 and 32 as objected to. In the text of the action Claim 6 is also rejected. Applicant's Attorney and the Examiner had a telephonic interview on March 30, 2005 to clarify the claim numbering issues and to accord allowance, objection, and rejection properly. During this interview it was agreed, and the Examiner set forth, that the current status of the claims was that Claims 23-28 were allowed, Claims 5-6 (the first listed Claim 6), 22, 30 and 32 were objected to, and Claims 1-4, 6 (the second listed Claim 6), 7-21, 29, 31, 33 and 34 are rejected.

Applicant respectfully thanks the Examiner for taking the time to have the telephonic interview and for the efforts in determining that the present subject matter is allowable. Further, Applicant respectfully cancels Claims 1-4, second 6, 7-21, 29, 31, 33 and 34. In so doing, Applicant respectfully refers to the second Claim 6 as the claim reciting:

The local RF receiver and baseband out intelligent device system of claim 3, wherein each of said at least one addressable devices has an IP address assigned thereto.

Applicant has rewritten Claims 5, 22, 30 and 32 in independent form. Applicant respectfully submits that the present objections to Claims 5, 6, 22, 30 and 32 have been overcome at least because Claims 5, 22, 30 and 32 are rewritten in independent form.

Applicant respectfully submits that Claims 5-6 (first claim 6), 22-28, 30 and 32 are allowable and requests a Notice of Allowance on these claims.

CONCLUSION

Applicant respectfully requests early and favorable action with regard to the present Application, and a Notice of Allowance for all pending claims is earnestly solicited.

Respectfully Submitted,
